

Master of Arts (MA) in Psychological Research Program Prerequisites

Lower-Division Undergraduate Courses

- PSYC 101    Introductory Psychology
- PSYC 201    Elementary Statistics
- PSYC 202    Research Methods in Psychology

Upper-Division Undergraduate Courses

Two of the four courses below

- PSYC 302    Learning & Memory
- PSYC 303    Sensation & Perception
- PSYC 305    Cognitive Psychology
- PSYC 306    Biological/Physiological Psychology

Two of the four courses below

- PSYC 331    Psychology of Personality
- PSYC 341    Abnormal Psychology/Psychological Disorders
- PSYC 351    Social Psychology
- PSYC 361    Developmental Psychology

Upper-Division Undergraduate Quantitative Course

- PSYC 465    Advanced Psychological Statistics*

*If this course is not completed, students may take the qualifying exam to demonstrate the competency, or take it during the first semester in the M.A. Program.